

TECHNICAL REGULATIONS

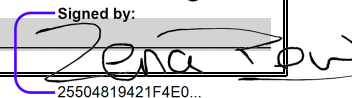

In accordance to the Government-Regional Agreement of the 02-02-2017:

- the educational activities must be impartial, balanced and do not influence directly or indirectly subjects with commercial interests
- it's not allowed to influence in anyway the publicity of any specific health product or to indicate only generic names (of medicines, medical devices or structures) and to omit any commercial name, even if not related to the topic debated.;
- it's not allowed to show images covered by royalties, imagines of medicines, medical devices or images which can result to be a violation of the patient's privacy
- the lecturer should communicate the contents of his/her lessons in advance to the Provider and deliver the complete documentation / booklets / questionnaires / regarding the contents of the lesson. At the end of the lesson, he/she will deliver a report of the activity as well.

For acceptance of the contents of the assignment letter and of technical regulations

Signature of undertaking work

Signed by:

25504819421F4E0...

SELF-CERTIFICATION CONFLICT OF INTEREST DECLARATION

The undersigned Zena Powell

Born in Shrewsbury, England Date of birth 12/09/72

DECLARE

to have not maintained business and/or economic relations with pharmaceutical companies, medical device companies and/or medical structures during the last two years and therefore there is no conflict of interest relating to the Event, in accordance to the Government-Regional Agreement of the 02-02-2017.

to have maintained business and/or economical relations with the pharmaceutical companies, medical device companies and/or medical structures that during the last two years listed below:

and that such relationship does not influence in any way the educational activities of the event or compromise in any way the exclusive aim of the activities which is to educate health professionals, and therefore there is no conflict of interest relating to the Event, in accordance to the Government-Regional Agreement of the 02-02-2017.

COMMITMENT

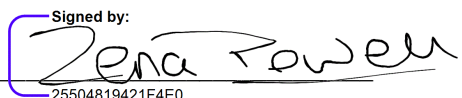

1) to assure that the educational/tutorial activities carried out by myself and limited to the Event are impartial, balanced and do not influence directly or indirectly subjects with commercial interests, in particular: a) not influence in anyway the publicity of any specific health product; b) to indicate only generic names (of medicines, medical devices or structures) and to omit any commercial name, even if not related to the topic debated.;

2) to assure that during the educational/tutorial activities carried out by myself and limited to the Event, no images covered by royalties or third parties industrial property rights are projected (such as, for example and not covering all, press publications, scripts, reproductions or extracts from protected internet websites), imagines of medicines and/or medical devices and/or images which can result to be a violation of the patient's privacy

DECLARE

the use and publication of my personal data in accordance to the Regolamentoo, exclusively limited to CME procedures, for which this document applies.

Date 5/2/2026 | 11:00:40 PST

Signature
25504819421F4E0...